Dated Shillong, the 16th March 2020.

CIRCULAR

The undersigned is to convey that as per directive received from the Government of India and the recent notification issued by Government of Meghalaya regarding closure of Educational Institutions in the state, the following preventive measures against the outbreak of Coronavirus (COVID-19) are hereby taken by the Institute:

1. All the classes, examination and interviews pre-scheduled by the Institute are suspended with immediate effect till 31.03.2020.
2. The faculty members shall provide e-course materials, assignments, etc to the students concerned through E-mail/online mode to compensate for the theory classes to be missed during this period. However, the practical classes will be compensated after the class resumes.
3. Students are advised not to panic and stay back in their respective Hostels. However, those students who want to leave the hostel may take prior approval of Dean (SW) along with an undertaking.
4. Students who are already out of station are advised not to join the Institute till 31.03.2020 or until further order. In case of any emergency, prior permission from Dean (SW) and Chief Warden must be taken.
5. All the M. Tech (including 1st year students) and Ph.D Full Time scholars should report at the Institute and mark their attendance in the register kept in the Departmental Office, Academic Block,
6. All updates/circulars with regards to commencement of classes will be communicated through Institute's e-notice board only. Students may frequently check the Institute website.
